THE 1951 BLAST

PRESENTED BY

THE BLAST STAFF

WARSAW CENTRAL SCHOOL

WARSAW N. Y.

VOL. II

The Blast Staff in this, the 1951 Blast, recalls the past year by a pictorial and written record of the activities of Warsaw Central School. While doing this we are using an oriental theme, symbolically looking to the East for a new sun, a new day, and a new hope for the future. When our eyes are focused upon our Oriental theme, we will be reminded of the ancient Philosopher, Confucius, who tried to right the many wrongs of the day in which he lived. He taught men to be honest, upright, faithful and obedient to those in authority. Through the patient efforts of our teachers, who have guided us faithfully, we have achieved these qualities.

Let us look ahead to the future, holding in remembrance these words of the great philosopher, "The young should be dutiful at home, modest abroad, heedful and true, full of good will for the many close friends with love; and should they have strength to spare, let them spend it upon the arts."

FOREWORD

*it wishes

Mary E. Toan*

To Miss Toan, the staff of 1951 gratefully dedicates this edition of the Blast. In many ways her sponsorship has guided us through the problems of editing each yearbook. Just as Confucius was a great inspiration to the people of China, Miss Toan has, likewise, greatly inspired us in our work. She has also served on the Warsaw Faculty as a teacher of Junior and Senior English. With all these contributions in mind, we wish to pay tribute to one who, although she has left us for a well deserved rest, will remain in our memory as a good friend and faithful adviser.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Any school, in order to run well, must have an efficient group behind it. Our Board of Education has solved the many problems that have arisen in the past school year with wisdom and good judgment. Very often the work this group does is allowed to pass without any sign of recognition or praise for a job well done. We appreciate the work done and the time and energy given by the members to make our school function efficiently.

Mr. Brown, Mr. Hawley, Mr. MacIntyre, Mr. Marchant, Mrs. Meng, Mr. McArthur.

MR. GILBERT BALL
Principal

In the six short years that Mr. Ball has been our principal, he has done a fine job of supervising the functions of our school. He has met and solved the problems connected with administrating a school with skill and tact. We wish to acknowledge and thank him for the fine work he has done for us. We sincerely hope that he will continue as our supervising principal for many more years.

IN MEMORIAM

FREDERICK HANEY EISENHARD

The time you won your town the race
We chaired you through the market place;
Man and boy stood cheering by,
And home we brought you shoulder-high.

Today, the road all runners come,
Shoulder-high we bring you home,
And set you at your threshold down,
Townsmen of a stiller town.

Smart lad, to slip betimes away,
From fields where glory does not stay
And early though the laurel grows,
It withers quicker than the rose.

Eyes the shady night has shut
Cannot see the record cut,
And silence sounds no worse than cheers
After earth has stopped the ears.

Now you will not swell the rout
Of lads that wore their honours out,
Runners whom renown outran
And the name died before the man.

So set, before its echoes fade,
The fleet foot on the sill of shade,
And hold to the low lintel up
The still-defended challenge-cup.

And round that early-laurelled head
Will flock to gaze the strengthless dead,
And find unwithered on its curls
The garland briefer than a girl's.

— A. E. Housman

CLASS HISTORY

There was once a famous school teacher named Confucius. In his wisdom he must have known what the Class of 1951 would be like, for even in far off China, way back in 500 B.C. when this great man lived, children were much the same. He too must have had in mind the hair pulling, the kicking and the poking that young shoots go through before the tender leaves really bud out. Miss Meyer must have sighed so many times the ancient truth that "the cautious never cry," when Billy Klahn bawled his lungs out "I wanna go home," and Sallie Nairn was caught when she pulled the chair out from under Nancy Burroughs. So whatever else we may have been at the tender age of five, we were not cautious.

We entered First Grade with Miss Wells as our teacher. The first week brought us the thrill of having our own desks, but this soon wore off when we decided that sitting on Miss Wells' lap was more fun—huh, fellas?

In Second Grade, we had Miss Lester as our teacher, who tried all year to teach us phonics. It was not unusual for anyone passing in the hall to hear the class reciting a, e, i, o, u.

The year in Third Grade was a particularly busy one for us young sprouts. Every spare moment was used in knitting an afghan. We even sacrificed the precious moments reserved for eating our graham crackers. It was after Christmas vacation that many of the boys felt heart broken when Miss Borland came back to school as Mrs. Thompson.

Fourth Grade brought some new members to our class. Among these were Bob Stuble, Fritz Eisenhard and Tony Toland.

Our Fifth Grade teacher, Mrs. Pettingill, also caused a bit of excitement with the boys—everyone except Tony Toland and Jim Thompson; Tony having his hands slapped with a ruler and Jim having a front seat all year.

I believe a class never worked so hard as we did in Sixth Grade. Miss Affleck continually drummed history into every one—well almost everyone. Karl Cummings thought watching a squirrel was more interesting so Miss Affleck let him stand by the window the rest of the day and record its every movement.

Art Class was our big joy in our seventh year. We started out modeling clay, but when Mrs. Riter found remains of the clay dried on the ceiling, we colored from then on. One day when Mrs. Riter suggested to Jim Gardner that his art could be improved, he couldn't seem to control his emotions and consequently was carried bodily to Mr. Ball. Ah well, Confucius said, "In a thoroughbred you do not admire his strength but admire his temper."

In our eighth year, under the excellent guidance of Miss Miller and Mrs. Lapp, we were prepared for that fatal week in June. However, in one of our lighter moments of the year, we made Career Booklets. Looking back now at those careers which we were so determined in carrying out, we are amazed at our expectations. Nancy Burroughs began in all earnestness on her career as a doctor. Harold and Jim Flanagan joined us this year.

Freshman Year. This year the class went to a party given by their First Grade teacher, Miss Wells. It was held at her home in the country so everyone rode his bicycle. Everyone enjoyed himself immensely, especially sliding down the haystack in the barn.

Upon entering our third year of high school, we immediately began planning for that big occasion, the Junior Prom. With Mrs. Rupp as our sponsor and the theme "Roomful of Roses" chosen, we went "full steam ahead" to make it a success. Everyone had loads of fun and, if we rightly recall, we even made a little profit.

On June 21, we, the Class of '51, paid our last respects to our President of the Junior Class. "Fritz" will always be remembered by his friends as a "swell" guy, a wonderful athlete, and a splendid leader.

Then came that wonderful day in September. And with it came the front door, Room 202, the windows in study hall (although some of us Seniors said it was hard viewing the scenery on Buffalo Street from the seventh grade row). First came the magazine sales; then, the Senior Play. Two members of the cast caused mild sensations that night; Tony, in his white knickers, and Norma G. as a cute and witty thirteen-year-old.

Now we are looking forward to the Ball, Class Night, Baccalaureate and finally Commencement.

We all recognize what a slow, often torturous, process growth is for all of us and for those who watch us so carefully to see what can be made easier.

I think if wise old Confucius could see us in our maturity, he would realize it is a delightful, joyous state as it exists in the Class of 1951.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Class of 1951, of Warsaw Central School, being of supposedly sound body, memory and mind, do make, publish and declare this our last will and testament, in the manner following that is to say:

FIRST: Having duly traveled four years through these halls of learning, we regretfully take leave of our friends and teachers, leaving those who will surely miss our wit and humor, some of those qualities which have made our class the object of much-discussed envy.

We hereby leave all of our just debts, including any which we may have overlooked, to the Junior Class, and direct that they make immediate payment as soon after our passing as may be practicable.

To Pat Wheeler, Kay Smith, Barbara Lundahl, Barbara Sunderland and Barbara Motts—Dorothy Baker, Esther Eck, Doris George, Norma Robinson and Yonnie McClure leave their engagement rings.

To Bill Roberts—Dick Neeley leaves his swagger.

To Marty Croney, Jack Metrose, Peter York, Chuck Petersen and Bill Smallwood—Dean Batzold, Jim Thompson, Lyle Deitzman, Bob Stubley, Jim Gardner and Don Miller leave the athletic fortunes of Warsaw Central School.

To Benny Ahner—Bill Klahn leaves his "savior-faire."

To Peggy Wheeler and Bill Smallwood—Jane Barber and Tony Toland leave their I.Q.'s. In addition the aftersaid Tony Toland leaves Bill Smallwood a pair of used size 13 shoes.

To Diane Dick—Don Williams leaves his binoculars.

To Pat Smith—Pauline Booth, Betty Gardner, Agnes Conrad, Marilyn Garland, Dorothy Grohs and Mary Ellen Miller leave their quiet ways.

To Phyllis Neeley, Anita Edmonds, Mary Elizabeth Ball, Doris VanAllen, Sheila Holahan, Ann Embury and Kay Wilse—Karl Cummings, Sallie Nairn, Harold and Jim Flanagan, Verlaine Taber and Monica Murtha leave their twisted music stands.

To Ronald Yott and Jack Thomson—Ken McVey and John Lakas leave the spring plowing.

To Adrienne Chase, Judy Robinson, Pat Smith and Kay Wilse—Marian Ahner, Norma Robinson and Esther Eck leave their cheerleading uniforms.

To Phyllis Morgan, Phyllis Neeley, Loretta Baker and Pat Wheeler—Shirley Parkhurst, Shirley Eddy and Jane Barber leave Mrs. Fritz Morris.

To Chuck Petersen—Larry Sheldon bequeaths his driving prowess.

To Glenora Weatherbee and Bob Younger—Virginia Van Allen and Eddie Klein leave their diminutive stature.

To Pat Wheeler—Leo Simard leaves himself.

We, whose names are hereto subscribed, do certify that on the day of March 15, 1951, in our presence and hearing declared the same to be our last Will and Testament, and requested each of us to sign our names thereto as witness to the execution thereof, which we hereby do in the presence of the testator and of each other, on the day of the date of the said will.

ACTIVITIES

THE 1951 BLAST STAFF

With the sound of school bells still ringing in our ears to usher in the new school year, the Blast staff started to work in earnest selling magazine subscriptions. We also initiated several new members into our staff. Financial problems confronted us, but we overcame them by soliciting advertisements from our local merchants and by selling candy after school.

In January, we attended the Western New York Interscholastic Press Association at Orchard Park. There the yearbooks were judged and we were very proud to receive a B rating.

The members of the staff - the old and the new - wish to express their sincere thanks to the sponsors, Miss Toan, who has now retired, and Mrs. Albro. We all hope that this yearbook will leave many happy memories in the years to come.

STUDENT COUNCIL

With the new school year well in progress, the Student Council was formed. A voting machine was furnished by the village and the students elected their officers. To charter organizations, approve constitutions, and to set up the school calendar were a few duties of the new Student Council. They also sponsored dances after basketball games with music furnished by the school band. They held Tea Dances every Wednesday afternoon and sponsored a St. Patrick's Dance. With the proceeds from these activities, the Student Council will pay for an engraving of the portrait of Fritz Eisenhard on the plaque being purchased by the football squad.

Club activities this year have been centered around special library functions, such as a book exhibit, tea for the faculty, book repairing, rehabilitating the card catalog and preparing book lists etc.

The Glee Club has been one of the main musical organizations of this school for many years. The group varies between fifty to seventy members.

At Christmas time, the girls presented a Christmas Cantata, "Childe Jesus," which was preceded by a candle-light procession.

The Spring Concert is one of the main attractions of the year, because of the quality of the music as well as the colorfulness of the girls in their evening dresses.

This group put on the first operetta to be given in Warsaw. It was a Musical Comedy, "Ask the Professor." They did most of the advertising, scenery and make-up themselves.

After experiencing this operetta, they are eagerly awaiting next year's performance.

SPORTS

ON THE COURT

JR. VARSITY

The Junior Varsity squad was ably coached by Mr. Ketchum. The league was well balanced and most of the games were very close. The two high scorers were Bill Smallwood and Peter York

VARSITY

Although the games played were very exciting and close, our Varsity boys came out in third place. Every one of the boys, as well as Coach Davis, worked hard for the whole season. Jim Thompson was the highest scorer; while second highest was Chub Batzold. Jim also broke the school record for scoring in one game and made the most total points for the season.

COACHES:

Mr. Rising and Mr. Davis.

ON THE GRIDIRON

This year's football season—a joyous one—was won by the fighting orange and black. Our boys took the cup, losing only one game—to Caledonia. Some of last year's lettermen returned and helped us to gain victory under the skillful direction of Coaches Rising and Davis.

CHEERLEADERS

This year's cheerleaders consisted of five varsity members, six junior varsity members and two grade boys. Captains were L. Krizman for junior varsity football, Patsy Klein for junior varsity basketball and Norma Robinson for varsity football and basketball. Two dances financed the purchases of uniforms. They had two practices a week which made them a lively and efficient squad.

In the season of 1950, the Warsaw Central Track Team had five meets. The scores were: In a quadruple meet Wellsville 41, Batavia 47½, Warsaw 13½, and Perry 8; in a dual meet Warsaw 62, Letchworth 24; in a trio meet, Batavia 1st, Warsaw 2nd, and Perry 3rd; in a dual meet Livonia, 1st; Warsaw 2nd; and in the sectionals at Rochester Warsaw was represented by Don Miller, pole vault, Dave Miller, shotput; J. Thompson, 100 yard dash; J. Gardner, high jumping; also 440 relay with Miller, Thompson, Corwin, and Gardner. With the return of several of the veterans of 1950, together with new men, we are anticipating a better track season in 1951.

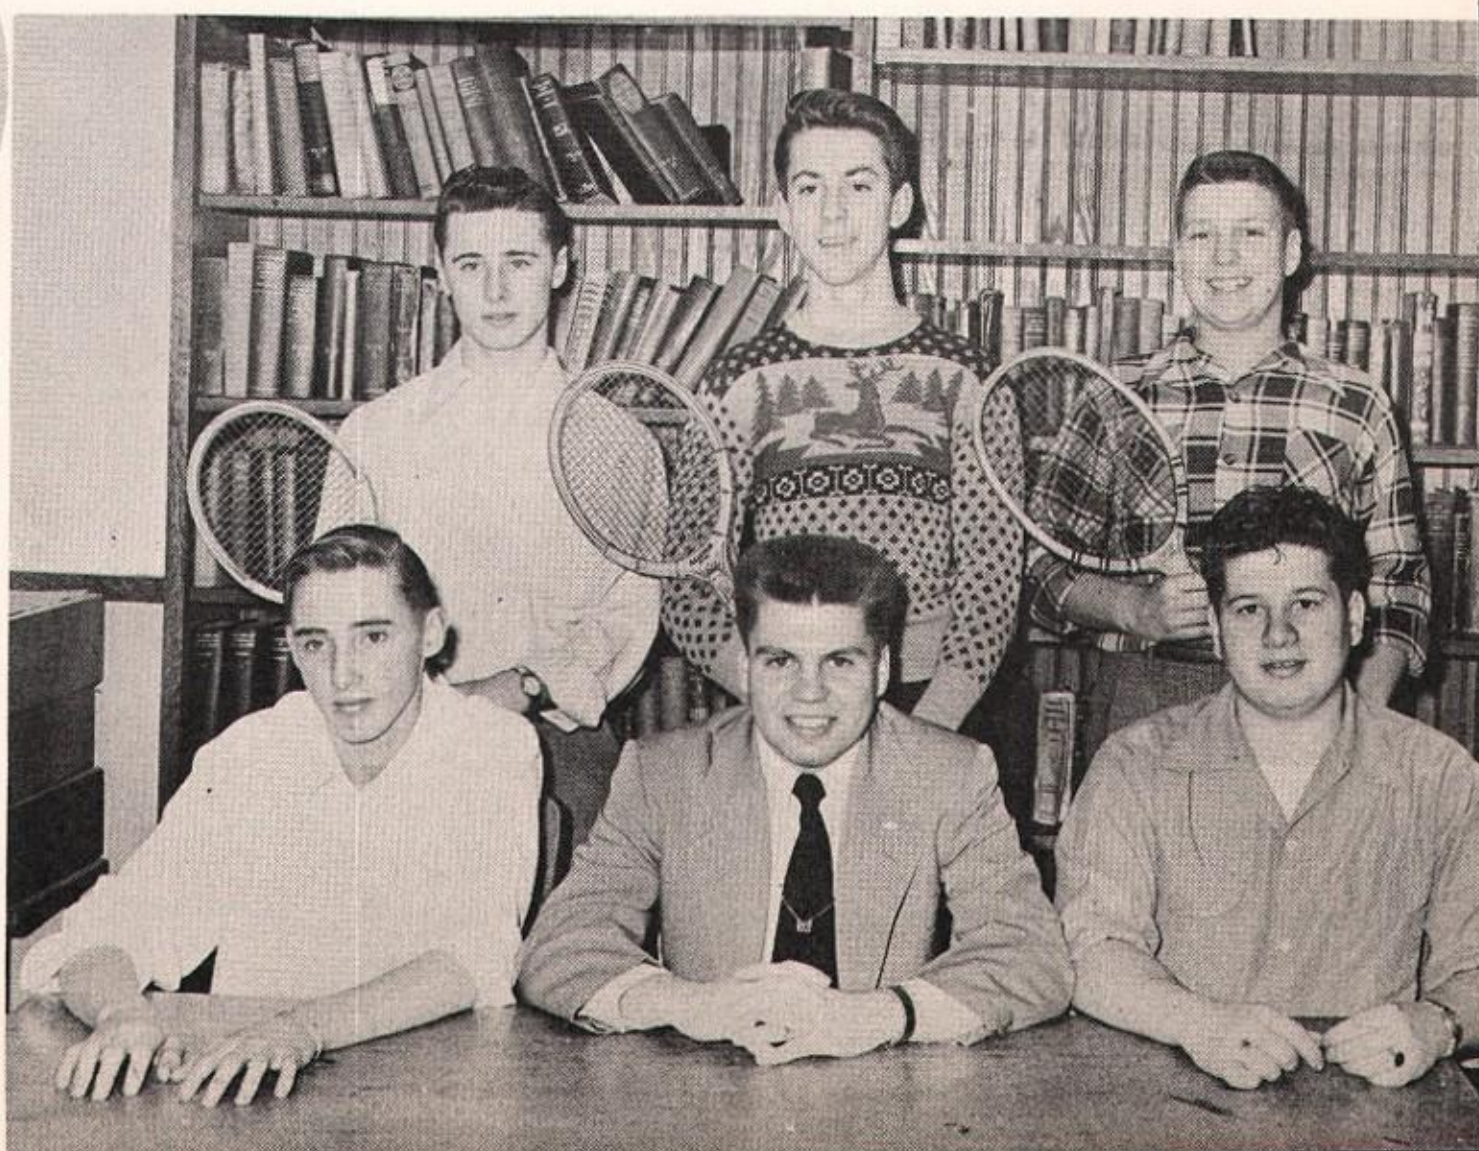

Mr. Ketchum

Seated: M. Croney, Mr. Ketchum, L. Deitzman. Standing: J. Simard, S. Watt, G. Weidman.

TENNIS

In 1950, the tennis team had four meets. The scores were: Warsaw 2, Perry 3; Warsaw 3, Livonia 2; Warsaw 0, Batavia 5; Warsaw 1, Perry 4. A better season is ahead with Simard, Watt, Weidman, and Dietzman. Glosser and Croney did very well in their doubles matches, losing only to Batavia. N. Grover and Dietzman, and Simard represented Warsaw in the county tournament.

ON THE DIAMOND

First Row: Mr. Albro, D. Williams, S. Carleno, E. Frey, J. Roncone, W. Williams, D. Batzold, R. Stubley, D. Morgan, A. Kohler. Second Row: B. Grover, L. Cass, F. Eisenhard, J. Callahan.

Warsaw Central's 1950 Baseball Nine "wrapped up" the County Championship with seven wins in a row after losing the first game of the season to Perry. LeRoy was too much for Warsaw in the sectionals.

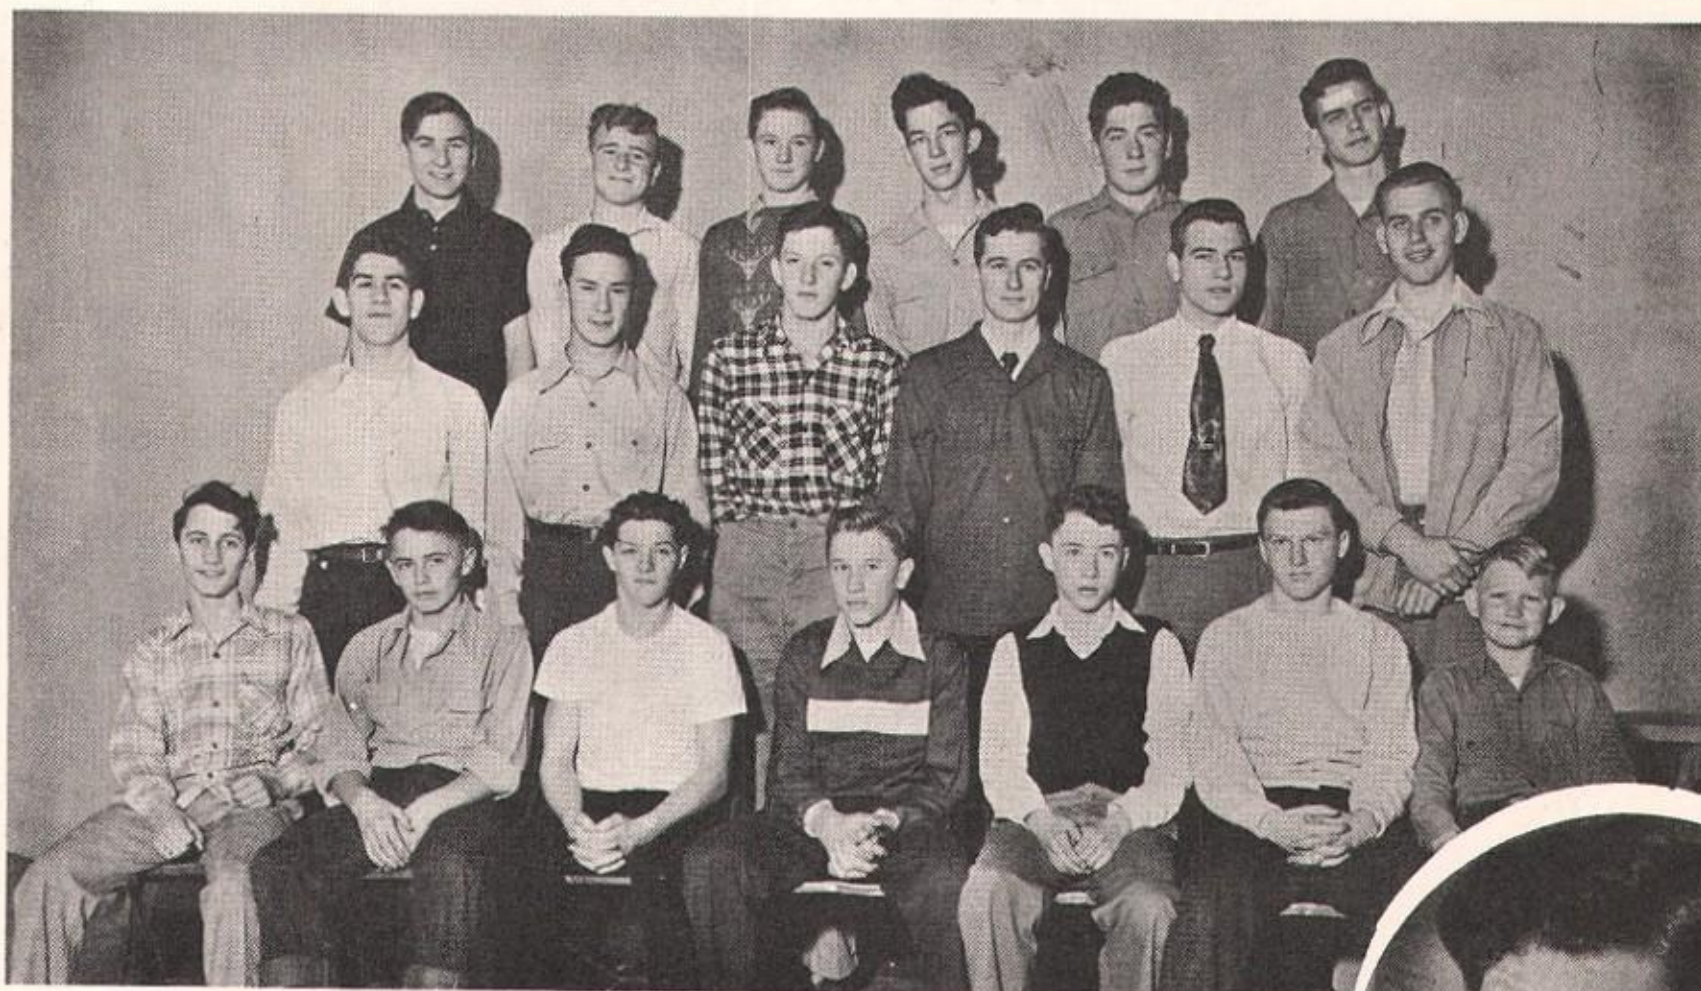

Walt Williams, Sam Carlino and Don Morgan all pitched sparkling victories for Warsaw, as Fritz Eisenhard (.464), Sam Carlino (.437), and Jim Callahan (.405) led Warsaw's batting attack. Those players earning their letters were: Callahan, Williams, Carlino, Morgan, Stubley, Batzold, Eisenhard, Roncone, Grover, Cass and Wolfley.

Mr. Albro retired as baseball coach this year after guiding Warsaw Central to four championships, two seconds, and one third over a seven year period. Mr. Goelz is the new coach.

Wrestling is a new sport at Warsaw Central as this is only its second year. The teams play in newly organized Wyoming County League consisting of Warsaw, Arcade, Perry, Attica and Letchworth. This new sport gives boys who do not play basketball a chance to play in another sport. This year's team shows promise of better seasons ahead because most of the wrestlers are freshmen or sophomores. The team lost two matches to date, one to Oakfield and one to Letchworth. They won one from Perry. The following is the starting team and their weight classes: J. Flint-103; T. Walczak-112; K. Murtha-120; L. Sheldon-129; A. Taylor-133; R. Hoyt-138; G. Comstock-145; D. This year the Juniors held a very successful prom in November. Our theme was "Dancing in The Dark," and was carried out in navy and light blue decorations. Since we had a "hit" with Jack Nunn's orchestra as Sophomores, we again had his music. The attendance was quite large and we were happy to hear everyone had a pleasant time. Mrs. Marchant, our sponsor, deserves much credit for helping to make it a successful dance. We hope next year's Juniors do as well.
